LESSONS FROM LITTLE ROCK

A lecture by Ernest Green
One of the Little Rock Nine

2 p.m., February 27, 2014
Colvard Student Union,
Foster Ballroom

The former U.S. Assistant Secretary of Labor for Employment and Training and current investment banker discusses his experiences as part of the Little Rock Nine. This group of African-American students, who enrolled in then-segregated Little Rock Central High School in 1957, became agents of change in one of the most turbulent times in American history.
