Film: Berlin 1885 – The Scramble For Africa. This is a documentary movie by Chiloe Productions, a group of European filmmakers. Written and directed by the famous French movie director, Joel Calmettes, it is an educational film to be shown throughout the European Union beginning from fall 2010. My segment of the movie was filmed at Mississippi State University in December 2009. I was one of three history professors from the United States chosen to participate in the film in our capacity as recognized experts on the subject. Hopefully, the movie may be shown globally later.
